A DAY

IN THE LIFE...

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

Lift every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty,
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun
of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

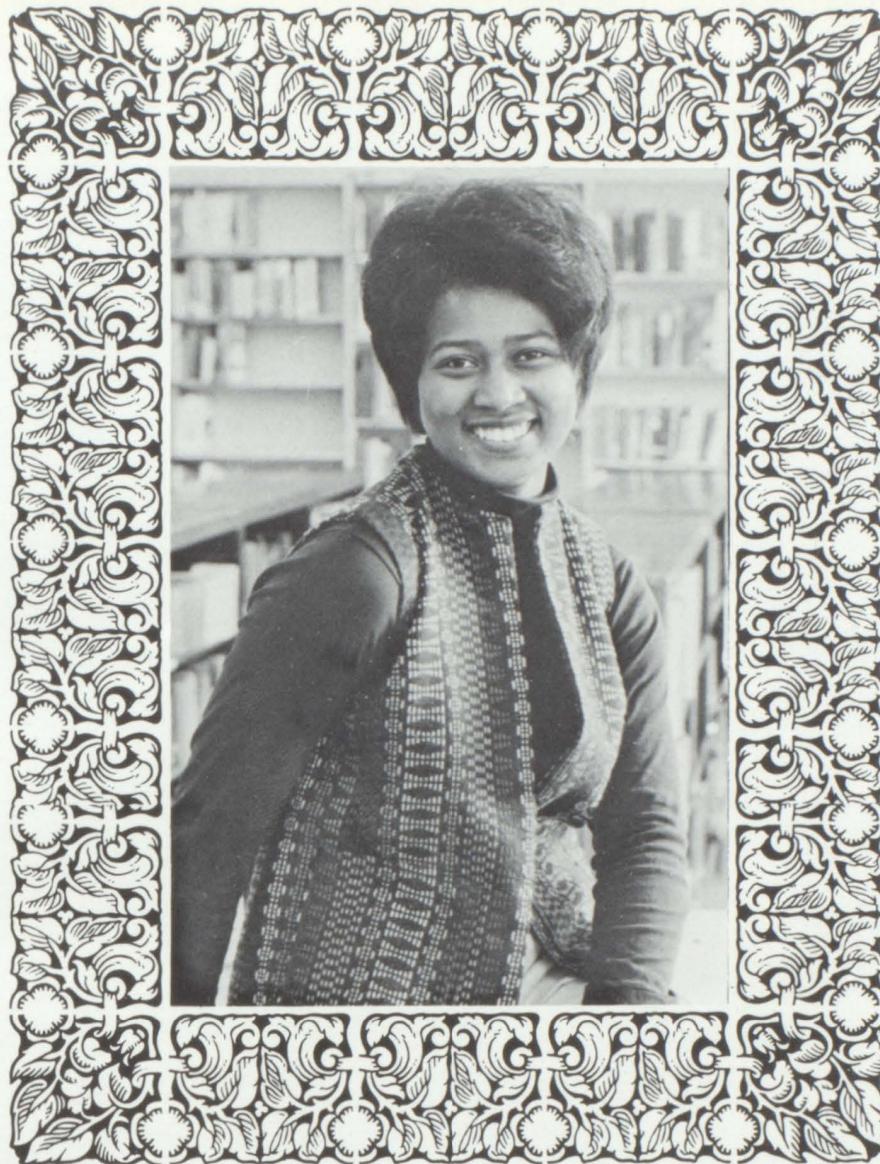

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered;
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past.
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who hast by Thy night,
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray,
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand
True to our God, True to our native land.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

DEDICATION

This year Weequahic has been our treasury of dreams, dreams that have become a reality, as well as those to be fulfilled. We are dedicating these pages to someone who has shared many of our dreams and ideals, Miss Gwendolyn McClendon.

Her quick sense of humor and love for people has gained for her the respect and admiration of everyone.

Our years at Weequahic High have been memorable ones. The path she has shown us has been one of great rewards and expectations.

It is with appreciation that we the class of 1973, salute you, Miss McClendon and extend to you our deepest gratitude.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

My experiences as editor of the Legend Staff of 1973 are of such a nature that I will reflect on them later in life. This volume of the LEGEND has undergone many hours of preparation some with alacrity and others with hesitation.

Even more so than the satisfaction of seeing the book completed, I feel that there exists a feeling among the staff members and our advisers that there was greater reward in being able to work together. By working together we have attempted to develop this volume around a theme to which we could all relate—"A day in the life", showing Weequahic as it really is.

The success of this volume of the LEGEND 1973 cannot be attributed to one individual inasmuch as it took a joint effort on the parts of the staff and our advisers. We hope that our efforts will make this one of the most memorable that Weequahic has ever known. I offer my eternal thanks to the staff and especially to our advisers for a job well done.

Mr. James Barrett, Principal

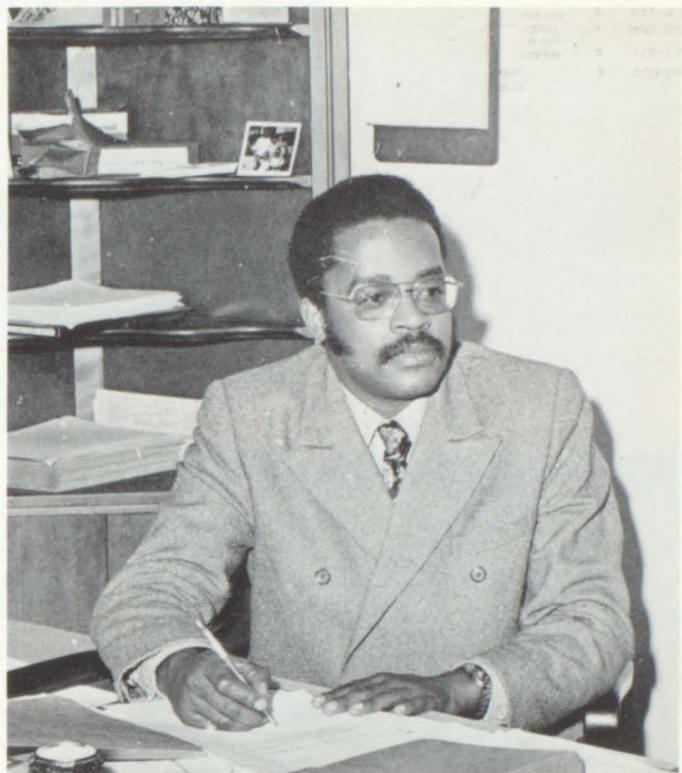

Graduation time is always a happy occasion for those who have applied themselves diligently for 4 years and are now preparing to meet the world.

I commend the graduating class of 1973 for their success, for they have achieved against insurmountable odds. I say only to the graduating class of '73 that you should not forget the many problems you had to encounter to come to this point and because of this, you have a special obligation to those you leave behind to return to your community where you can provide the wisdom, understanding, and other human resources necessary to correct the many problems we have in the city of Newark. I am committed to do my share and you, should be equally committed.

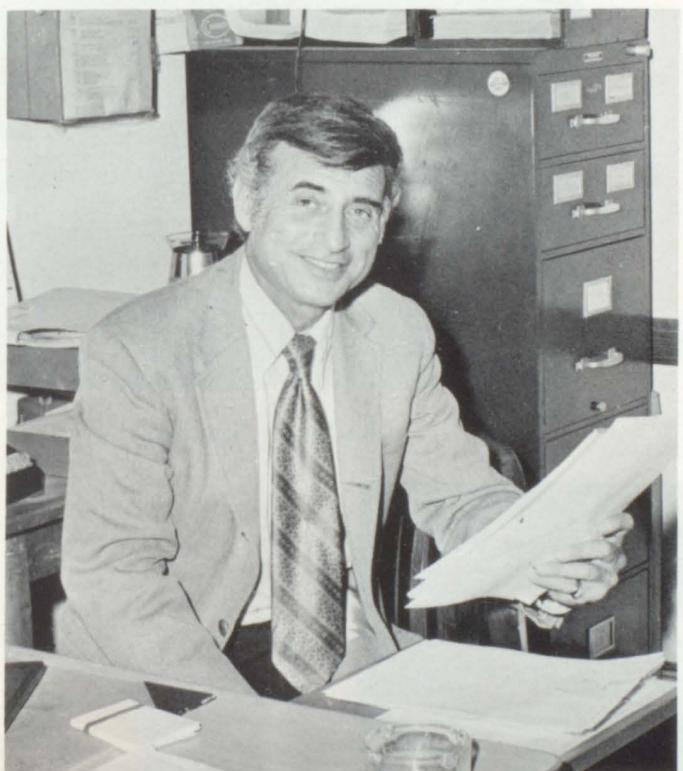

It has been said many times that the longest journey begins with a single step, so let us all begin now to make the journey that will, in the final analysis, uplift the life-style of our people.

Coach of the Year

As I have taught you
To run, Boy—
It's a short dash
Dig your starting holes
Deep and firm
Lurch out of them
Into the straightaway
With all the power
That is in you
Look straight ahead
To the finish line
Think only of the goal
Run straight
Run high
Run hard
Save nothing and finish
With an ecstatic burst
That carries you hurtling through the tape
To victory

we are nothing and something at the same time smaller than a grain of salt
when compared to the
vastness of space,
meaningless as the ocean's roar
when compared to the infinity of time
the world will continue with or without us and cares not which it will be the seasons will come and go long after we are gone
our names faces experiences will soon be forgotten by all of mankind
only by understanding this can we become something

ADVISER'S MESSAGE

The "Class of 1973" has filled me with many special thoughts and feelings. Working with the council and its officers has for the most part been an extreme pleasure and a privilege for me. Few class officers or council members in other classes have performed so responsibly and so well as those of the "Class of 1973". They have achieved far beyond our anticipation and have illustrated their determination toward reaching their goals, both collectively and individually. To these students I fondly say, "Thank you and Godspeed."

To the "Class of June, 1973", strive always for perfection, never accept second and to yourselves always be true.

Love ya,

Gwendolyn McClendon

MESSAGE FROM THE CLASS PRESIDENT

It is with great pleasure that I had the honor of being president of the senior class of 1973.

Many of us will go on to other institutions to further our education. However, for many of us, this graduation marks the conclusion of our educational pursuits. Regardless of your plans for the future, I ask of you, the "Class of 1973", to go out into the world and make the best of yourselves. Express the pride and dignity that each of you possess.

When seeking a higher education do not think only of the monetary aspects of your chosen profession, but also the feelings which can provide you with the motivation to perform a service that will benefit your own people.

We have shared some of the most important years of our lives in a changing environment. We have witnessed the rebirth of Weequahic High, a revolution which can be attributed to our principal, Mr. James Barrett, Jr.

At this time I wish to express my hopes for your eternal success and all the luck in the world for the rest of your lives.

Forget me not,

Darryl Pruitt

IN

THIS WORLD

THERE'S

NO

STANDIN' STILL

THERE'S

ONLY

MOVIN' AHEAD

OR

FALLIN' BEHIND

THE STRUGGLE

Eyes looking forward
Hearts full of hope
We are marching toward the sunlight.
We must move swiftly before the new day grows old or we'll have to return to the darkness and ramble
Through the long bitter night
Once again.
Keep on striving beautiful people
It is the last great battle of our fight.
For every pain and tear drop
For every lost soul
For all of us who have lived and died
yet never lived.
We are fighting for us-hood
Because we have the we Beaten out of us.
The road is long
But it need not be lonely
Let us believe in each other
And what we have to do.
We can fail to win
But we cannot lose
For the real essence of the struggle
Is in the fight
And every blow is unto life.
We wish to live
And not to be lived off by others;
This is the morning of our lives.

Happiness is . . .

- . . . having a substitute teacher on a test day.
- . . . finding someone to take you to the prom.
- . . . a fire drill.
- . . . being sent to room 116 when Mr. Coles and Mr. Lee are absent.
- . . . co-ed health class
- . . . getting an assignment you've already completed.
- . . . when your teacher thinks you've turned in an assignment and tells you she's sorry she lost it, but she remembers that it was acceptable.
- . . . 2:05 p.m.
- . . . knowing your teacher is getting married and will be out of school for a month.
- . . . when school is closed on Monday.
- . . . graduating in three years.
- . . . getting out of school early enough to see your favorite soap opera.
- . . . when school is closed because of snow.
- . . . when your teacher forgets to give a test.
- . . . when your mother makes you stay home from school to take care of your little brother.

Misery is . . .

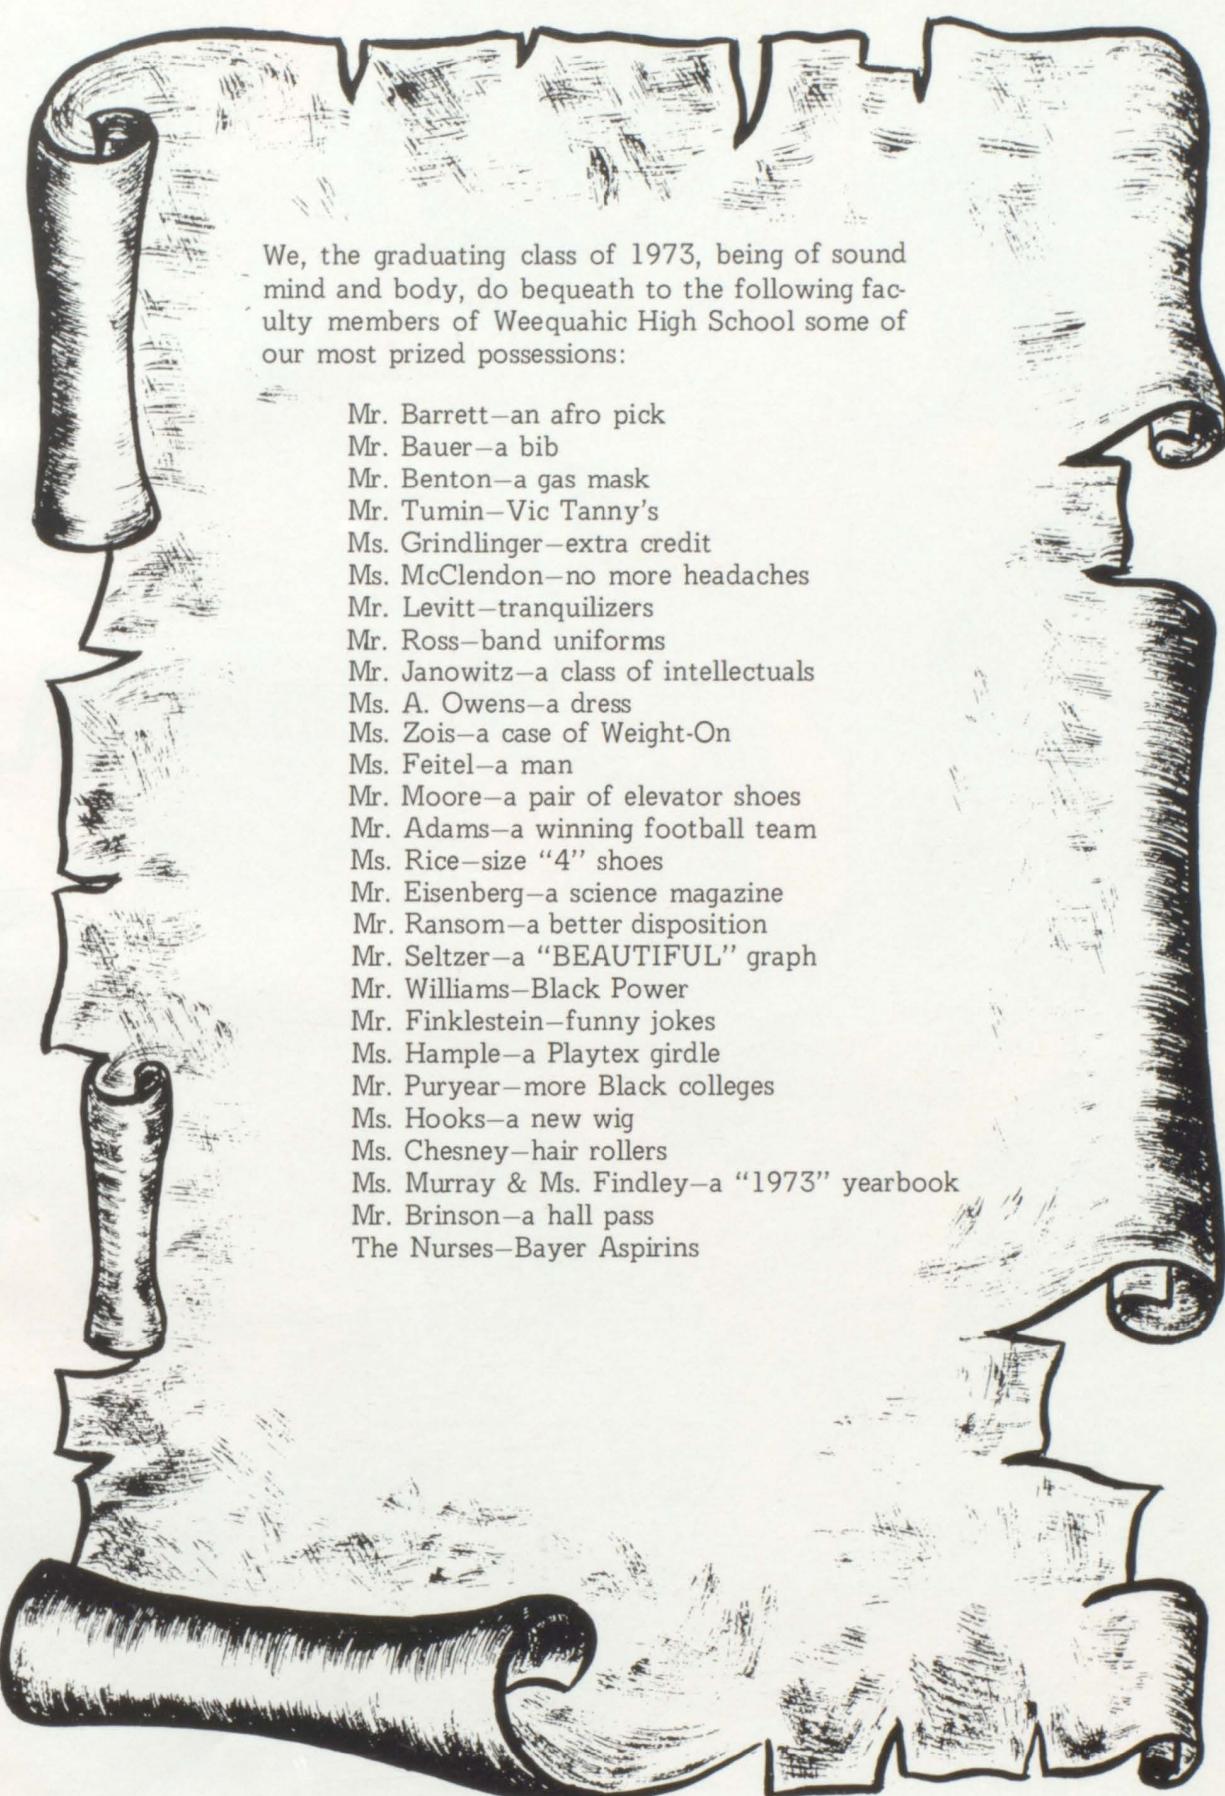

- . . . getting suspended from school and your parents refuse to come to school to have you reinstated.
- . . . a Weequahic cafeteria lunch.
- . . . a first period class.
- . . . seeing the teacher whose class you just cut.
- . . . getting caught in "operation cleansweep".
- . . . talking to a teacher with bad breath.
- . . . getting your report card.
- . . . studying all night for a test only to find that the teacher is absent.
- . . . leaving your glasses at home when you sit in the back of the class.
- . . . having your homeroom in the boy's gym.
- . . . coming to school without a pen or a pencil.
- . . . making up work at the end of the cycle.
- . . . leaving your money on a cafeteria tray and throwing it away.
- . . . finding out that the boy you like is three years younger than you are.
- . . . finding out that you're not going to graduate.
- . . . losing a basketball game to Central.
- . . . having a boring class in a room without a clock.
